

CAFE'S JAZZ JAM SESSIONS

WORDS like entertaining, fun, funky and even therapeutic can be used to describe Blues Cafe's jazz jam sessions that are held on Sundays — words about it are getting around rapidly. At the July 5 session, Blues Cafe's resident band The Solianos started the ball rolling joined by Albert Yap at bass. The Curtis Robinson Trio arrived later and had their share of jamming too. They are currently performing at The Pub in Shangri-La. From Kuala Lumpur Hilton, Jerry from the Jazzmates came along to party as well. Achun, a Petronas employee, who is also a musician currently backing singer Ray Fabi at Micasa's Pazzoz's, also joined in the session.
